Yuletide greetings unto the mighty and noble populace of the Outlands.

May this most joyous time of year be filled with happiness for all of you. As we feast upon the bountiful harvests of our land and revel with old friends and new like, it is good to see that we remember those who need our help and support. Over 500 children will have toys this season due to your generosity. Armor has been donated for those in newer shires where armor is limited. We ask other gentles who would share of their expertise or extra equipment to contact us. Too often in the modern world one sees little kindness or caring for others. We thank all who have contributed to these endeavors. You have made the dream a reality for others.

We need not remind you that war approaches. We have seen the growing numbers attending fighter practices. Our artists are also hard at work preparing for the competitions at Estrella. Others are devoting equally long hours to the planning and co-ordinating of camps, tourneys, and other activities which will add to the enjoyment of the up-coming war.

Lord Kerold Hoegarden, Lord Tarkus,w and Lord Bela Magyar have been chosen as commanders of Our Northern, Central, and Southern armies. They will be contacting sub-commanders as well as unit commanders of these assigned areas. Like Ourselves, they will need the advice and experience of those who have come before them. Therefore, we ask all commanders and members of the chivalry to offer to these gentles your sage advice and support.

We do not condone hate speech, or acts meant to demean members of Our populace.

Enjoy the feasts and revels of this season. Repair and prepare for the journey West, for once again We will face Our brothers upon the fields, and join them in song and revelry around the bardic fires of Estrella.

FROM THE SENESCHAL

Greetings unto the people of the Outlands from Maestra Francesca di Pavia, Kingdom Seneschal:

Domesday time is here! Officers, please do your utmost to have your Domesdays to your Kingdom superiors on time! If you have any qustions about what is expected on your Domesday report, please ask the appropriate Kingdom officer.

Though it should not be needed, a word to parents about parental responsibility is in order. As a parent, you are responsible for your child(ren) at all times. Period. This applies at SCA events just as much as it does in any other situation. You need to supervise your children! To ensure responsible parenting, the following policy will be implemented:

Unsupervised child(ren) found running about or creating a problem at an event will be returned to their parent(s) with a warning that they must be responsible for their children, or they will be asked to leave the site. If this occurs a second time at the same event, the child(ren) will again be returned, and the family will be required to pack up and leave the event.

This policy will apply equally in the case of minors attending an event with adults other than their parents. Remember that minors may not attend events unless they are accompanied by a responsible adult! That adult, in effect, agrees to act as the minor's parent for the duration of the event - and they must take that responsibility seriously.

This policy is not intended in any way to discriminate against families with children, or to discourage their attendance at events. Children are welcome in the SCA! However, there are often situations at events which can be hazardous for children, or where their actions can cause problems. Some of these situations could create an insurance liability for the SCA. These policies are needed to ensure that our activities are safe and enjoyable for everyone.

On to another matter that should not need mentioning, but does: the SCA welcomes persons of all races, faiths, etc. to participate in our game. Diversity is a strength, and must not be used as a wedge to divide us. Speech or actions which are hateful or discriminatory against any person or group may be period, but cannot and will not be tolerated in these Current Middle Ages. Engage brain before operating mouth. 'Nuff said.

Though the winds be chill, may your halls be warm.

FROM THE KINGDOM SCRIBE

Greetings to one and all. I would like to express my sincere appreciation for the many people who donated their skills and materials to produce scrolls during the past reign. There were over seventy-five scrolls assigned through the Scribe's office, and that does not include many promissory AoA's that were given! If you did a scroll for the kingdom, but are not on this list, please let me know so that I can correct my files and publish any additional names in a future issue.

I would like to thank my deputies, THLady Wyndylyn and THLady Caelte for all of their help. They make my job easier by taking much of the work on themselves, particularly at the end of the past reign, when I was a bit preoccupied with real life! Others I would particularly like to thank include Lady Tetsutaka Yukihana, Lord Eoin MacRae, and Lady Fermina de Caballo, each of whom did a number of scrolls during the reign.

If you would like to do scrolls for the kingdom, please let me know. Please keep in mind that if you would like to do a scroll for someone, all texts must be pre-approved by the Scribe's office (the texts and variations in the Kingdom Scribe's Handbook are already approved). Please check with me before starting to work on back scrolls that have been awarded in this kingdom. Even if someone has not yet received a scroll, it may have already been assigned to a scribe, even if the recipient is unaware of it. By checking with the Scribe's office, you can make sure that there isn't already someone hard at work on a scroll for that award.

Here is the list, by group, of those who did scrolls for the reign of Lycurgus and Mikhailina.

al-Barran: Agate die Fahrwanderin, Aidan Cocrinn, Alarik the Fool, Brioc, Caelte Caitchairn, Christoff Gately, Delia, Elenfea of Starwood, Fermina de Caballo, Kamala, Oengus of the Grey Mist, Random DeLay, Scia Demetria Drakanova, Susan the Midwife

Caerthe: Amber the Quietest, Arwen Southernwood, Cailainn ingen Muiredaig, Eoin MacRae, Ivan, John Angus Swinford, Marguerite d'Isere, Meadhbh Daingen int Slebhe, Meghan ni Guinne, Maredudd Angharad ferch Gwenhyfar, Mirianna Wrenne of Ravenswood, Rivka Vladimirovna Rivkin, Robert of Deerburn, Sadhbh ni Donnabhain, Taryn Brannick, Tetsutaka Yukihana, Wyndylyn Leanb na Doinnean

Citadel of the Southern Pass: Dietrich von Andernach, Monika von Zell, Rheanna de Liore

Dragonsspine: Brennainn Làmfhada, Demetrios ho Bibliophilos, Gwyneth Maeve of Falconguard, Tatiana Pavlovna Sokolova

Unser Hafen: Angelina Crispiana d'Avignon, Drahomira Jaroslavna, Rosslin von Hohenzollern

Caer Galen: Adelicia d'Alviela, Genevieve Duran

Nahrun Kabirun: Caitlin MacTaggart, Connor MacTaggert, Christian de St Clare, Dermot MacNessa, Devlin, Drucilla of the Drunken Archers, Maigen O'Cassidie

In Service to the Outlands,

Tatiana

FROM THE KINGDOM CHIRURGEON

Now that winter is here, it is hard to find suitable sites for fighting events. While it is sometimes the only site available, I would like to make a plea not to use horse arenas or other indoor livestock areas as fighting sites. While the large dry area may sound like a good idea, many people, both fighters and spectators, have problems with the dust and powdered manure that they wind up breathing at such an event. In addition to lung and sinus problems, any cuts or armor bites have a much higher infection rate.

Working to keep the populace happy and healthy,

Lady Eileen Fraser

CAERTHEN TWELFTH NIGHT

Caerthe, January 3, AS XXXII (1998)

The Barony of Caerthe and House Griffin Tower invite all to join us at the Tower for revelry that will dispel the cold and gloom of winter. The Tower will be filled with Music and Merriment such as it has not seen before!

The Autocrat, Patrice Trembath, has dulled many quills in noting the myriad tasks to be done; Lady Anna Vonostenwald has commandeered a powerful electronic scribe to record reservations, and Lord Padraic of Grandview and Lord Frederick of the Black Swans are searching for performers.

For your pleasure, Lord Grellan O'Conchobhair has graciously offered to preside over the Flattened Fox, a period gaming establishment. And Patrice welcomes and encourages merchants to contact her regarding space in the Market.

The servants of House Griffin Tower are even now scurrying thither and yon to find the meats, cheeses, fruits and foodstuffs for the feast of 12th Night! Mistress Margaret of Griffin Tower, the Chef de Cuisine, is overseeing the preparation of the Feast: Bread, herbed and honeyed butters and assorted munchables will be on the tables to titillate your taste buds; there will follow cheese pie and salad, chicken breast with rice pilaf, roast beef on trencher with sauce au jus and spiced apple rings. The Household's apprentices and journeymen bakers will showcase their skills by providing a dessert buffet-cream puffs, fruit tarts, tortes, and treats made from a New World discovery-the cacao bean! Please discuss any special dietary needs with the autocrat.

House Griffin Tower is prepared to accommodate those gentles who prefer a vegetarian feast. Please, therefore, let us know who you are either by contacting the Autocrat or so indicating on your reservation form.

Those gentles wishing to partake of the revelry should mail reservations as follows:

Fees: $ 5, site only, off board seating; $14 - Feast & Site. Children - if 6-12 years in age, fees are 1/2 price. If under 6 years in age, there is no charge. Mail all fees to Lady Anna. Please include both Society and 20th Century names for all gentles in your group. Please make checks out to: SCA-Caerthe.

You may find the Tower at the Jefferson County Fairgrounds (Lakewood, CO). Take your best route to 6th Avenue Parkway and Indiana Street in Lakewood. Get off the Parkway at Exit 209B, turning south onto Indiana. The Fairgrounds are a short distance under the overpass and to the right along the Frontage Road. Look for the SCA signs.

The Tower's gates will be open to all visitors beginning at 11:00 a.m. Knights and Dons should be prepared to meet with the Crown at 11:00 a.m.; Opening Court is planned for 4 p.m. followed by a Baronial Court. Feasting shall commence at 6:00 p.m. Peer circles are planned to occur during the morning of Sunday, January 4. Times and location(s) will be announced at the event and maps will be available at the troll station. The evening's festivities shall end at 10:30 p.m. so that clean-up can begin. We must abandon the Tower by 12 midnight. This is a dry site.

There will, of course, be contests: for costuming in theme (Music & Merriment); for children, for table decorations, Queen's discretion, King's discretion, Autocrat's discretion, for performances.

Those gentles who wish to perform, please contact Lord Padraic of Grandview (Pat Thornton) at (303) 933-0031 or Lord Frederick of the Black Swans at (303) 985-7590.

Volunteers are needed to serve the feast and to assist with clean-up. Please contact the Autocrat if you are willing to help out.

Gentles who have questions, concerns or special dietary needs should contact the autocrat.

Children must be between the ages of 2 and 12. You need to pack a bag lunch and send an extra set of clothes. The center has wonderful playrooms and a great fenced playground. The director has asked her teachers to put together a medieval program for the kids. The college policy forbids children under the age of twelve to attend college classes. The cost for child care is approximately $12 per day, per child.

The Royalty Coordinator is Lady Taryn Brannick. This service is provided as a point-of-contact for all Kings and Queens who wish to attend (a one stop shopping for the convenience of royalty).
